Subject: Heads-up - lease renewal coming for unit 2C

Hi Andrea,

I wanted to give you an early heads-up before the renewal-rate letter goes out in early June. Owner just signed off on the metro-comp study and we expect to land somewhere in the $1,375 to $1,475 range on the new monthly rate. The formal letter with the exact figure will arrive by post and email at the start of June - this note is just so it does not catch you off guard.

Nothing for you to do at this point. The formal letter will include the precise rate, the renewal addendum, and the sign-or-vacate window. We are aiming for a forty-five-day decision window once the formal rate posts, so you will have time to weigh it.

Feel free to reach out if you have any questions or if you would like to flag any maintenance items you want addressed during the transition.

Best,
